Affinia Chicago
A Cityscape Hotel

166 East Superior Street
Chicago, Illinois
Hotel telephone: 312.787.6000
Hotel fax: 312.787.6133

HOTEL OVERVIEW:

Built in 1969 as the Barclay, the hotel was purchased in April 2006 by Denihan Hospitality Group and rebranded as the Affinia Chicago. After undergoing a $25-million renovation, the property embodies the signature elements of all Affinia Hotels. The Affinia Chicago features a cityscape experience offering guests an exclusive escape from the city while providing a unique insider's access to Chicago's best kept secrets. Featuring residential style rooms and suites, C-House Fish and Chops by Marcus Samuelsson and the C-View rooftop lounge, each setting has been meticulously crafted to meet the individual guest's needs for social interaction, entertainment, exploration, quiet contemplation or personal rejuvenation.

LOCATION:

Steps from the Magnificent Mile, the Affinia Chicago is located at the epicenter of entertainment, culture, shopping and business.
