HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We've planned the perfect celebration

(and cover guy John C. Reilly has a suggestion, too)

Marcus Samuelsson

Best known for serving creative takes on classic Scandinavian cuisine at NY's Aquavit, where the Ethiopian-born native of Sweden has been executive chef and co-owner for 12 years.

Big plans for C-House, a modern seafood-focused restaurant serving breakfast, lunch and dinner. An extensive raw bar joins entrees like soy-glazed yellowfin tuna with an onion tart and fennel salad. The year-round rooftop deck and C-Bar will focus on cocktails and small plates, which include fish and chips and a lobster club; plus the C-Bar will have a front-row view of the show kitchen.

Look for it in the Affinia Hotel at 166 E Superior in March.
