GREEN & GLOVER: On the Fourth

Top chef

A District native with roots in the hospitality industry has been promoted to executive chef at Art and Soul, the restaurant in the Liaison Capitol Hill hotel.

Travis Timberlake was a child when his parents opened Timberlake's restaurant in the Dupont Circle area. Now he will be serving as executive chef for chef-owner Art Smith on the Hill.

There's no word yet on whether the restaurant's name will be amended to reflect Mr. Timberlake's new position. Travis, Art and Soul perhaps?
